The tv show, my 600 lb Life has shown a woman naked and she is getting a bath. Her breasts were fully exposed. The name of the episode is Bettie Jo's Story and it aired on 2/25/15. This is ridiculous and not something that should be on tv. Please enforce the nudity laws. The public is tired of all the indecency on television.

Thank you for contacting the FCC to share your concerns about broadcast program material that you find offensive. It is against federal law for a television or radio station to air obscene programming at any time, or to air indecent or profane material during the hours of 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. The FCC is charged with enforcing the law that governs the broadcast of such material.

For the FCC to consider whether a licensee has violated these requirements of the law, a complaint must relate to particular programming, rather than express a general opinion. To proceed on a complaint, the FCC must have information that includes the station that aired the programming material, the date and time of day of the broadcast, a recording, transcript or description of the material broadcasted. This will allow us to determine whether it is obscene, indecent or profane. Because your complaint does not provide all of this information, we cannot proceed further with regard to your allegations. Accordingly, we must close your complaint.

Your views and concerns about program material are important to us. You may refile your complaint with this additional information. To expedite our consideration of your complaint, we recommend that you submit it via the FCC's online Consumer Help Center at consumercomplaints.fcc.gov.

To assist you further, we are including links to information that discusses the law with respect to indecent, profane and obscene broadcasts and our enforcement procedures.

We encourage you to convey your concerns, whether general or program-specific, directly to station management. This can be an effective method to influence a broadcast licensee's programming decisions.
